temporary service. His work and conduct have been reported to be satisfactory, but he is over-aged for regular appointment. The D.P.I. recommends that the age rule may be relaxed in his favour. In the circumstances of the case, this dept need not object to the rules being relaxed as a special case. H.C.M. should see. A copy of the relaxation order should be communicated to the M.P.S.C.

Subject to orders the file may be returned to Education.
